Hunting the Nightmare Bacteria

Lunch and Learn

Presented by the Emergency Management Committee.

Thursday, July 10, 2014
12 pm-1 pm in the Mira

Learn what healthcare workers can do TODAY to help address this future threat.

On May 1st, the World Health Organization released a report stating that we have reached the “post-antibiotic” era, in which many of our common infections are no

Hear from CDC experts about the challenges faced caring for a young girl on life support in Arizona to an uncontrollable outbreak at one of the nation’s most prestigious hospital. This PBS front line program describes the alarming rise of a bacteria that our modern antibiotics cannot stop.